Special Exclusions

Without negating the provisions regarding exclusions already set forth in the general exclusions above, the Death Benefit cannot be paid if the Participant dies due to the following:

- a. War, danger of war or wartime emergency, whether partially or fully involving any part of Indonesia, whether declared or not; or
- b. Activities related to military or police duties being carried out by the Participant, unless the Participant is charged with Additional Contribution (if any) specifically for that job or activity; or
- c. Strikes, riots, unrest, rebellion, civil war, or coup; or
- d. Activity related to aviation being undertaken by the Participant as an aircraft passenger, including but not limited to flights or other air activities except as a fare-paying passenger on a flight that has full license (legally) operated by a commercial airline or a licensed leased company; or
- e. Engaging in dangerous jobs or activities, including but not limited to aircraft crew, car/motor racing, diving, skydiving, boxing and horse riding, unless the Participant is charged with Additional Contribution (if any) specifically for that job or activity; or
- f. Consuming alcoholic beverages, illegal substances, poisons, gases, and the like.

Note:

Full details on exclusion provisions are stated in the General Provisions and Special Provisions of Manulife Protection Sharia (FLEXI) Policy.

New Insurance Application Procedure

Prospective Policyholders will receive a Personal Product and Service Information Summary ("RIPLAY Personal") from the Insurance Agent. After RIPLAY Personal is approved, the prospective Policyholder will complete the following documents:

1. Sharia Life/Health Insurance Application Form, fully completed and signed by the prospective Policyholder, prospective Participant, and the Insurance Agent;
2. Photocopy of the prospective Policyholder's identity (if different from the prospective Participant) and the prospective Participant;
3. Signed RIPLAY Personal;
4. Proof of Contribution payment transfer completed with the Policy number; and
5. Other supporting documents (if needed).

After the documents are complete, the prospective Participant will proceed to the risk assessment process.

Claims Submission and Payment Procedure

MiEClaim is an online web-based claims submission portal that makes submitting your claims easy, fast, and practical with no limit. Submit claims through MiEClaim in 4 simple steps:

For Death Claims:

1. Policy,
2. Death Claim Form provided by the Administrator,
3. Medical certificate from the doctor who examined the Participant's corpse explaining the causes of death of the Participant,
4. Death certificate and/or Death Certificate from the authority,
5. Police report in the event that the Participant dies due to an accident or unusual circumstances,
6. Certificate regarding identity proof relevant to the Policy, and
7. Photocopy of the Participant's and the Beneficiary's Identifications that are currently valid.

For Living Benefit Claims:

1. Letter certifying the identity of the Policyholder; and
2. Living Benefit Form provided by the Administrator.

Manulife Syariah Indonesia will process the claim by referring to the General Terms and Special Policy Terms, including but not limited to policy exclusions, and insurance benefits payments will be made no later than 30 (thirty) calendar days from the date the claim is approved by Manulife Syariah Indonesia, and if the claim documents as mentioned in the General Terms and Special Policy Terms have been received in full by Manulife Syariah Indonesia and after undergoing the truth-testing of the Policy/investigation.
